TinaCMS

https://tina.io

Tina is an open-source, Git-backed headless content management system (CMS) that empowers both developers and content creators to collaborate seamlessly on a single platform. Tina enables developers to craft a custom visual editing experience perfectly tailored to their website or application while supporting a broad range of content types such as Markdown, MDX, and JSON.

https://nextjs.org/

https://nextjs.org/docs/getting-started/installation

```
npx create-next-app@latest
```

TinaCMS Installation

```
npx create-tina-app@latest
```

```
Tina Dev Server is running... ─────────────────────────────────────────┐
│                                                                        │
│   □ Tina Config                                                        │
│     CMS:              <your-dev-server-url>/admin/index.html           │
│     API playground:   <your-dev-server-url>/admin/index.html#/graphql  │
│     API url:          http://localhost:4001/graphql                    │
│                                                                        │
│   □ Auto-generated files                                               │
│     GraphQL Client:    tina/__generated__/client.ts                    │
│     Typescript Types:  tina/__generated__/types.ts                     │
```

From:
https://wiki.netzwissen.de/ - netzwissen.de Wiki

Permanent link:
https://wiki.netzwissen.de/doku.php?id=tinacms

Last update: 12/10/2024 - 18:59